SUB: Netaji Mahavidyalaya, Arambagh envisages to bridge the skill gap of its youth / students through partnership with TCS Foundation under their CSR initiatives

Dear Sir,

Netaji Mahavidyalaya envisages to bridge the skill gap of its youth / students through partnership with TCS Foundation (TCSF) under their CSR initiatives where employability training is provided for students who are either pursuing graduation or have completed graduation and are unemployed. The students of our institution are mostly first-generation learners from marginalized communities hence we invite you to help them develop their skills and enhance their employability.

Netaji Mahavidyalaya will provide premises for this purpose as per the training schedule mutually agreed between us and TCSF and ensure the availability of training rooms, projectors and all required infrastructure required to conduct these trainings.

Netaji Mahavidyalaya takes responsibility of mobilization and safety and wellbeing of the students.

We have 400 students currently in their final year (5th and 6th semester) who are interested and will immensely benefit from the training.

Request you to please consider this favorably and take it forward for further processing.

Yours Sincerely

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

We wish to inform that Tata Consultancy Services Ltd. (TCS) is engaged with Netaji Mahavidyalaya, Arambagh, Hooghly, West Bengal as part of its CSR initiative of Youth Employment Program.

The Company desires to extend support to the marginalized and vulnerable communities, in its endeavor to empower the youth with social, economic, and educational opportunities.

The modality of this program is to impart training to the students, through sessions conducted by TCS' Certified Trainers, for a period of approximately 100 hours. The training modules are designed to provide employability skills to the students, to enable a level playing field, in terms of their future employment opportunities.

The beneficiaries at their volition, can apply for jobs in TCS and other organizations subject to the criteria as set by them from time to time. However, TCS is in no way responsible, or guarantees placement of the students in any organization, as a necessary outcome of this CSR initiative.

As requested by Netaji Mahavidyalaya, Arambagh, Hooghly, West Bengal, this document is issued for their accreditation process.

Authorized Signatory
